

Life Beyond A Crisis: Uncovering The Secret Next Chapter of Our Lives

A Retreat Day with Teacher & Spiritual Director Jim Curtan

Many films are contemplative works of art, they meet us where we are and offer a mirror image of our inner selves.

Spend a day exploring the film "The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel" and contemplate the spiritual guidance available in a careful viewing of the film.

People of all ages will learn about moving from crisis to re-birth, discovering a secret chapter to our lives, aligning with grace through chaos, navigating the unexpected and beauty and love at any age.

Jim has combined his 20 years experience in the entertainment industry with more than a decade as a retreat leader and spiritual director to develop a unique and entertaining approach to using film as a gateway to rich spiritual experience.

When: Saturday March 7, 2015 9am – 3:30pm

Where: Historic Campus of All Saints Church 132 N. Euclid Ave. Pasadena, CA
(across from City Hall)

Fee: $48 through February 20, 2015, $58 thereafter

"When old words dies on the tongue, new melodies break forth from the heart; and where old tracks are lost, new country is revealed with its wonders. "

- Rabindranath Tagore

Jim Curtan is an archetypal consultant, spiritual director and retreat leader. He has taught extensively with New York Times best-selling author Caroline Myss and has been a faculty member of the Caroline Myss Educational Institute (CMED) since its inception. He has taught at the Omega Institute and The London Centre for Spirituality and lectured and led spiritual retreats and workshops all over the world.

In his prior career as a talent manager, Jim advised such prominent actors as John Malkovich, John Travolta, Patrick Swayze, Geena Davis, Willem Dafoe & Andy Garcia.

jimcurtan.com